Today is Casper's birthday. His mum wants to buy him a gift, so she takes Casper to the toy shop. The toy shop is in the shopping mall next to the café. There are so many toys, such as robots, toy cars and so on.

Among a lot of toys, Casper likes a robot most. He likes it because the robot is his favourite cartoon character. He is playing with the toy and it is fun.

Oh no! The robot drops when Casper is playing with it. The robot is broken. Casper feels scared.

In the end, Mum and Casper say sorry to the shopkeeper and pay for the robot. Casper feels sad. He decides to be more careful in the future.
