

An Accident

4B_08 Chung Wing Ching, Venus

I seldom go cycling because I am not good at cycling. Last Sunday, my cousin Jamie and I went cycling in ABC Park.

There was a dog on the lane. I did not see it and fell down. I was hurt. I felt sad. I said, "Oh! No! My feet are hurt."

Jamie came. "I called the ambulance," said Jamie. The ambulance came. I said to Jamie, "Thank You!" We went to the hospital. The doctor helped me. I should be more careful next time. I should put on knee pads when I go cycling.
