Hoopa is Missing

Hoopa is my Pokémon. I lost him in Sakura town on Sunday.

Hoopa is four years old when he is not evil. When he becomes evil, he will turn thirteen years old. He is white, dark purple, yellow, and grey. He has a pair of light green eyes. He is friendly and naughty. He is dangerous when he is evil. He likes toasted food and eats the food for free. He always chases me. When he is tired, he feels cold and faint.

I love Hoopa. If you find him, please call 90235460. I will give you one thousand dollars.
