

A personal recount about an accident

4E Huang Zi Yu, Janice

I seldom go cycling because I am not good at it. Last Sunday, Jamie and I went cycling in Hong Kong Park.

There was a slope on the cycle lane. I went too fast and crashed into a tree. I hurt my knee.

I felt upset. Jamie saw what happened. He looked after me and called the ambulance. “Thank you.” I said. “I am happy to help you.” said Jamie.
