

Celebrating Chinese New Year

by Kelly Mak Hoi Ki, 6C

On the Chinese New Year eve, I went to the flower market in Causeway Bay. It was a big market where I could buy flowers and decorations for the festival. I went there with my cousin. We had a reunion dinner at my grandma's home. We felt glad because we did not meet each other for few years and we could eat a lot of food.

On the first day of Chinese New Year, I went to a cinema in China. I watched a movie and let off fireworks at night. We had hotpot for dinner. I felt sorry because I burned my sister's hand accidentally. She felt painful. Luckily, she recovered the next day. I like Chinese New Year because I can let off fireworks. I will be more careful next time.
