

An Accident

4A Ng Hei Man, Heyley (16)

I seldom go cycling because I am not good at it. This morning, Jamie and I went cycling in West Kowloon Park.

There was a tree in front of me and I did not know how to control the bicycle, so I crashed into the tree. I shouted, “Oh no!” I hurt my arm and I felt worried.

Jamie saw what happened. He called the ambulance and looked after me. When we arrived the hospital, the doctor said, “You must rest more.” I should be more careful next time.
